A.S.ADVENTURE
BRANDS:
Ayacucho

SUPPLY CHAIN TRANSPARENCY:

A.S.Adventure does not disclose names and addresses of its suppliers.
→ It is time for A.S.Adventure to go transparent! A first step should be to comply with the Transparency Pledge, and publish data in a machine-readable format.

LIVING WAGE PAID:

This means: A.S.Adventure makes no claim and no public evidence was found that its suppliers are paying a living wage. → A.S.Adventure should respect the right of workers in its supply chain to a living wage and ensure full transparency in order to demonstrate the implementation of a real living wage at factory level.

A.S.Adventure has made no commitment that we can find to ensure a living wage is paid across its supplier network.

A.S.Adventure has no public plan describing how to improve wages for workers across its supplier network.

No evidence was found that A.S.Adventure takes steps to safeguard wages when they are in price negotiations with suppliers. This allows suppliers to put profit margins ahead of wage security for workers.

Several benchmarks are available for companies to measure whether wages are sufficient to meet the basic needs of workers and their families.

However, no evidence was found that the company uses any credible living wage benchmark.

A.S.Adventure does not publicly report on unionization of workers nor on existing collective bargaining agreements in its supplier factories.
