"I don't have a husband and am facing a serious financial crisis along with my three sons and daughter. This is very difficult for me to carry the expenses of the family, we're passing days almost half starving."

#PayYourWorkers

"We are now losing our hopes. I am depending only on this job. My family [depends] on my earnings. From April I am getting only half salary, it's so difficult."

#PayYourWorkers

"They did not pay us our wages, compensation or benefit, which I was owed after six years working there. The factory told us brands have cancelled or suspended goods that were ready to deliver."

#PayYourWorkers

"I have given all my energy making clothes for very low wages. Manufacturers and fashion brands can profit off the clothes, but nobody cares for us when we are suffering."

“During the crisis, brands should show accountability for the workers that have long produced products for them.”

#PayYourWorkers

“European and American companies should be responsible for these workers, because profit goes to their countries, they make millions, billions, but what are our workers getting? They have no jobs and no food.”

#PayYourWorkers

“I can't pay my house rent. I'm having issues getting food for my family. This job was my only source of income.”

#PayYourWorkers

“We hope we will get justice and want the factory to respect the law and provide workers with what they are due.”
